This policy is based on the Department for Education guidance 'Preventing and Tackling Bullying. Advice for Headteachers, staff and governing bodies', July 2017

Introduction

At Springwell Community College we aim to provide a safe, caring and friendly environment for all our students to allow them to learn effectively, improve their life chances and help them maximise their potential.

We recognise there is a need to safeguard the welfare of all those within the college community and to encourage co-operation, tolerance and harmony. We have high expectations of all students and strive to create a climate in which all children can fulfil their potential.

Bullying of any kind is unacceptable. If bullying does occur, all students should know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively.

Springwell Community College is a 'telling' college and anyone who knows that bullying is happening should be able to inform a member of staff in safety.

As a college we:

- Discuss, monitor and review our anti-bullying policy and practices on a regular basis.
- Support all staff to promote positive relationships to prevent bullying and will intervene by identifying and tackling bullying behaviour appropriately and promptly.
- Ensure that students are aware that all bullying concerns will be dealt with sensitively and effectively. We would expect students to feel safe in and out of college, including an understanding of the issues relating to safety, such as bullying. We also want them to feel confident to seek support from the college should they feel unsafe.

Objectives

This policy outlines what Springwell Community College will do to prevent and tackle bullying. The policy has been formulated in consultation with the whole college community with input from; members of staff, governors, parents/carers, students and other partners. We are committed to developing an anti-bullying culture whereby no bullying, including between adults or adults and children, will be tolerated.

The policy will be reviewed and further developed on a regular basis. We seek to learn from good anti-bullying practice elsewhere and utilise support from the Local Authority and other relevant organisations where appropriate.

- Miss Caroline Hoyle – Student Progress Leader, Year 8

Definition of Bullying

"Behaviour by an individual or a group, usually repeated over time that intentionally hurts another individual either physically or emotionally and involves an imbalance of power" (DfE 'Preventing and Tackling Bullying', July 2017).

How does bullying differ from teasing/falling out between friends and other types of aggressive behaviour?

- There is a deliberate intention to hurt or humiliate
- There is a power imbalance that makes it hard for the target to defend themselves
- It is usually persistent

Occasionally an incident may be deemed to be bullying even if the behaviour has not been repeated or persistent – if it fulfils all other descriptions of bullying. This possibility should be considered, particularly in cases of sexual, sexist, transphobic, racist or homophobic bullying and when students with disabilities are involved. If the target might be in danger then intervention is urgently required.

What does bullying look like?

Bullying can include:

- Name-calling
- Taunting
- Mocking
- Making offensive comments
- Physical assault
- Taking or damaging belongings
- Producing offensive graffiti
- Gossiping and spreading hurtful and/or untruthful rumours
- Excluding people from groups
- Imbalance of power between an individual and/or a group towards another individual and/or a group of people.
- Cyber bullying – inappropriate text/instant message/website entries/social media communication
- Sending of offensive or degrading images by mobile phone or the internet.

Forms of Bullying covered by this policy

There is no hierarchy of bullying, all forms should be taken equally seriously and dealt with appropriately.

Bullying can happen to anyone. This policy covers all types of bullying including:

- Bullying related to race, religion or culture.
- Bullying related to Special Educational Needs or Disability (SEND).
- Bullying related to appearance or physical/mental health conditions.
- Bullying related to sexual orientation (homophobic or biphobia bullying)
- Bullying of young carers, children in care or otherwise related to home circumstances
- Sexist, sexual and transphobic bullying
- Bullying via technology – ‘cyber bullying’
- Peer on peer abuse

Although bullying can occur between individuals it can often take place in the presence (virtually or physically) of others who become the ‘bystanders’ or ‘accessories’.

Responding to bullying

The college community will:

- Create and support an inclusive environment which promotes a culture of mutual respect, consideration and care for others which will be upheld by all.
- Work with staff and outside agencies to identify all forms of prejudice-driven bullying.
- Actively promote systematic opportunities to develop student’s social and emotional skills, including their resilience.

- Consider all opportunities for addressing bullying in all forms throughout the curriculum and supported with a range of approaches such as through displays, assemblies, tutor time, peer support, the anti-bullying team and Students Matter (see Appendix 3).
- Regularly update and evaluate our approaches to take into account the developments of technology and provide up-to-date advice and education to all member of the community regarding positive online behaviour.
- Train all staff (teachers, support staff and ancillary staff) to identify all forms of bullying and how to follow the policy on reporting and recording incidents.
- Proactively gather and record concerns and intelligence about bullying incidents and issues so far as to effectively develop strategies to prevent bullying from occurring.
- Actively create ‘safe spaces’ for vulnerable young people.
- Use a variety of techniques to resolve the issue between those who bully and those who have been bullied.
- Work with other agencies and the wider college community to prevent and tackle concerns.
- Celebrate success and achievements to promote and build a positive college ethos.

Reporting and Procedures

Reporting

Our college has clear and well-publicised systems to report bullying for the whole college community (including staff, parents/carers and students). This includes those who are targets of bullying or have witnessed bullying behaviours (bystanders).

The systems for reporting bullying at Springwell Community College are:

- Students can report to any member of staff
- Students can report to any member of the 'Springy AB team'
- Staff and students can report to a Student Progress Leader or member of the Senior Leadership Team
- Visitors can report to any member of staff
- Bystanders report to any member of staff and members of the 'Spring AB team'.

Procedures

If bullying is suspected or reported the incident will be dealt with, immediately, by the member of staff who has been approached. All reported incidents will be taken seriously and investigated. This will involve all parties. The college will take the following steps:

- Interview all parties separately.
- Inform parents/carers.
- Look at a range of responses appropriate to the situation: solution focussed, restorative approaches, circle of friends, individual work with target/perpetrator and referral to outside agencies if appropriate.
- Refer to the Behaviour for Learning Policy and college sanctions and how these may be applied, including a hierarchical approach should the bullying persist.
- Teachers/tutors will be kept informed.
- Follow up, especially keeping in touch with the person who reported the situation.
- Police involvement (if a crime has been committed).
- Provide support for the target and the students identified as the bully.
- When responding to cyberbullying concerns the college will take all available steps to identify the bully, including looking at college systems, identifying and interviewing possible witnesses and contacting service providers and the police if necessary. The police will need to be involved to enable the service provider to look into the data of another user.
- Support anyone involved (See Appendix 2).

Recording bullying

Bullying incidents will be recorded by the member of staff who deals with the incident on a Bullying Incident Form (BIF – see Appendix 1).

The completed BIF should be given to the relevant Student Progress Leader and a central record made.

The information held will be used to ensure individual incidents are followed up. It will also be used to identify trends and inform preventative work in the college and development of the policy. The information will be presented to the governing body, in an anonymous format, on a regular basis.
